PACKERS MUST GIVE UP MANY SIDE LINES

U. S. Supreme Court Decree Forces Them To Withdraw From Outside Business

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, Dec. 18.—A dozen or more of the important side line industries of the Chicago meat packers, involving an investment of many million dollars, will be disposed of under a stipulated decree, soon to be entered by the U. S. Supreme Court on a motion of Attorney General Palmer. Representatives of the packers refused today to discuss details of the decree under which the packers in future will be required to confine their business activities to the production of meat, poultry, butter, eggs and cheese, but it is learned from an authoritative source that an outline of the plan has been agreed upon. It is said that the packers will be ordered to withdraw leather, canned fruit and vegetables, soap, cleansing powder, groceries, fertilizer, cold storage fish, refrigerator car lines, ceals, glue, sporting goods and control of stock yards.

Oscar Parks, aged 56 years, a prominent farmer of the Union City community, passed at his home there Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, after a several weeks illness following an attack of typhoid fever. Distillers Start Exporting Louisville, Dec. 18.—15,000 barrels of whiskey were withdrawn from Government bonded warehouses Wednesday for export. The withdrawals were the largest since July 1. The largest individual order from the old Lewis Hunter distillery at Lair, Ky., by the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company for shipment to Glasgow and London.

An opportunity for immediate export of huge liquor stocks now held in bond in Louisville and other points in Kentucky was offered by the American Shipping Corporation, of Jacksonville, Fla., in a telegram to Elwood Hamilton, Collector of Internal Revenue for this district. Freight room for 5,000 tons of liquor for "immediate shipment" to Liverpool, Manchester, Antwerp, Rotterdam and other ports in Europe is offered by the Jacksonville corporation. Mr. Hamilton was requested to advise all interested parties, as the room would be taken up in some other way if not bought by whiskey interests.

MINORITY LEADER FIGHT ON IN SENATE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 18.—A call for a conference of democratic senators Saturday to select a leader to succeed the late Senator Martin, of Virginia was issued today by Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, who is contesting with Senator Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, for the place. The outcome of control, which is the only business to come before the conference, is said to be in doubt. Hitchcock is acting democratic leader and chief spokesman for the administration in the treaty fight. Underwood was formerly democratic leader in the house. Friends said that Hitchcock's action in issuing the call indicated that he felt confident of winning. Some senators said this is the outcome of the treaty controversy, Hitchcock opposing and Underwood agreeing to accept as a last alternative the Knox plan to ratify the treaty except the League of Nations covenant, which may be left for future consideration.

JOHNSON'S STORE BURNS AT SPEEDWELL

The store of M. B. Johnson, at Speedwell burned to the ground Tuesday morning while Mr. Johnson was at breakfast. The well known storekeeper got up early and made a fire in the store so as to heat it up by the time the business began. He then went home to eat his breakfast. When he got back to his store he was horrified to find it a mass of flames. Everything possible was done to save the buildings and contents, but very little was gotten out. The loss falls very heavily on Mr. Johnson. It is understood he had but $2,500 insurance while he estimates his loss at over $4,000.

Don't forget that L. P. Evans, the insurance man of Richmond, can keep you well protected at all times, day or night, with one of his splendid fire insurance policies. See him before it's too late. 324 l

RESENTS CRITICISM OF BERE A CLASS

Keeper Roberts of Poor Farm Says It Is First He Ever Had and He Invites Inspection

Mr. L. R. Roberts, keeper of the poor farm near Union, and many of his neighbors resent criticism of the management of the poor farm, as made by the Red Cross Class of Berea College. Neighbors and prominent citizens of that community say that Mr. Roberts is giving splendid service, and doing everything that is necessary for the care and comfort of his unfortunate guests. All speak in high terms of him and his work. Col. J. R. Dunbar, who has been receiver for 14 years, testifies in strong terms to the good treatment and food the inmates receive. Mr. Roberts thinks also that the Berea College class did not give him fair treatment in its criticism. He says that this is the first time he has ever been criticized or condemned by anyone, and as is anxious for anyone to visit the farm and see the work that is done there and how he conducts the institution. He has given the Daily Register the following statement in reply to the Berea College Class' criticism: Editor of Daily Register:

There appeared in your paper several days ago, a reproduction of an article published by the Berea Citizen, concerning a visit made by the Red Cross of Berea College, to the County poor farm, and the county jail, and as keeper of the former, I desire to correct, and refute some of the statements made by the members of the Red Cross Class. They stated conditions found at the poor farm were not as satisfactory as might be desired, and that a number of the inmates are not receiving the care that they should, and naming a boy who has tuberculosis, as one of the inmates not receiving the proper care. Unfortunately, the poor farm has no special place to confine a case of this kind, but the very best that can be done for this unfortunate boy is being done. He has daily medical attention, and I feel sure that he will testify that he gets all the care necessary to his comfort, as far as his physical condition permits.

The intimation made by the Red Cross Class that the inmates are not given sufficient food, is absolutely without fact and foundation, and I am willing to leave this question to any inmate of the institution who does not bear a grievance against me. While the land at the poor farm is not very productive, for which I am not responsible, I raised one of the best gardens in the county the past year, having raised 1,500 heads of cabbage, 100 bushels of sweet potatoes, and other things in proportion.

We have also put up 125 gallons of blackberries, for winter use, and we milk three good cows, and the inmates are given all the butter they need. I feel safe in the belief the poor farm inmates are fed as well as the Berea College feeds its students, and I hope that if the fiscal court ever moves the county farm that it will not move it towards Berea. I invite inspection of the poor farm by the public at all times, but I expect and demand, that the truth be told concerning me, in the management thereof.

Very respectfully,
L. R. ROBERTS,
Keeper County Poor Farm.
Union City, Ky., Dec. 18, 1919.

MORROW TO KEEP QUINCY WARD

Leading Republicans And News-papers Urge That Efficient Game Commissioner Be Retained

His many warm friends here where he frequently visits, Col. Harvey Chenaunt and others, will be glad to know that leading republicans of the state are rising above mere partisanship and urging that Quincy Ward, of Paris, be retained as State Fish and Game Commissioner. No less a stalwart republican paper than the Lexington Leader, has openly come out and insisted upon retention of Mr. Ward in the place that he fills so ably and has done so for the past several years. The Lexington paper undoubtedly speaks with authority when it says that he will be retained in the work he is doing. Sportsmen and lovers of clean sport everywhere will applaud such an act, if Governor Morrow follows the suggestions that are being made. There is no reason why the Fish and Game Department should be in politics, any more than the prisons or other state institutions, which Gov. Morrow is endeavoring to take out of politics. It is understood that for some time one of Mr. Ward's most efficient assistants has been a republican. His game warden here in Madison county, Mr. W. H. Grider, is a leading republican, so that there is every reason Mr. Ward's splendid services being continued for the state and really none why he should be ousted.

What the Leader had to say of him will be read with interest and pleasure by his many friends here. It said:

Let Us Keep Quincy Ward
Governor Morrow will not offend any fisherman or hunter in Kentucky if he insists upon Quincy Ward remaining at the head of the bureau which enforces the game laws of the State.

The salary of this office whatever it can be no inducement to any office-seeking Republican to try to separate Quincy Ward from the position which he has filled so acceptably and certainly the job affords little opportunity for partisan activity. Therefore, nothing but the general good will be subserved if the Governor asks Mr. Ward to continue as a member of his immediate official family.

With Quincy Ward the duties of head game warden of the Commonwealth have been discharged as a labor of love—for the fulfillment of ideals which finds lodgment in the breast of every true nature lover the world over.

Quincy Ward is a fisherman and a hunter but he does not pursue these pastimes merely for the purpose of slaughtering those things which beneficent creator has placed on earth or the enjoyment of mankind. He would stock the fields and streams and protect the game birds and fishes to the end that all might find pleasure in them. Thus he would add to the food resources of the State and by inviting the workers to pleasant occupation out of doors, lengthen the average span of life.

Quincy Ward carries with him in his work much of the spirit that animated Walton and Thoreau, and which makes rare old John Burroughs a source of perpetual delight.

That such a man would be listed among these officials whose position would be regarded as one of the legitimate spoils of office is inconceivable.

Ed Morrow is a fisherman himself. Many a sunny day in October he has loafed and fished in the shoals and pools of that wonderful home of the when he ought to have been practicing law.

He will not disturb Quincy Ward.

Graham Springs Water Bad

The handle has been removed from the pump at the Graham Springs pavilion by order of Mayor Pulliam. This was done at the request of the chairman of the local Board of Health as a sample of the water had been sent to the experiment station at Lexington and an analysis by Bacteriologist E. J. Gott showed it to be badly contaminated. The spring will now be cleaned out and the water purified under the direction of an expert from the experiment station. As soon as this is done the Springs will once more be opened to the public. The contaminated water does not affect Manager Allin at the Graham Springs Hotel, which is supplied from another source.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

A CHRISTMAS SING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Carol Singing Is Being Revived And Custom Will Be Observed Here Dec. 21st.

A movement to revive the English custom of carol singing was inaugurated in the city of Detroit three years ago, groups of men and women, boys and girls marching through the streets and stopping for song whenever the signal light appeared in the window. Last year in this same city, the number of carolers had grown to 10,000 and a collection for the destitute families amounted to thousands of dollars. Many of the smaller towns have fallen in line and today the National Federation of Music Clubs, of which Mrs. F. A. Seiberling, of Akron, Ohio, is president and the National Musical Bureau of New York City, are urging the adoption of the custom everywhere. The condition of the streets in Richmond makes it impossible at this time to attempt to follow out this excellent idea, and the musical clubs, of which Mrs. B. L. Middleton is state president, in conjunction with the pastors of the various churches have decided to pursue the plan of many former years and hold a union service in one of the churches. This service will be held in the First Christian church Sunday night, Dec. 21st at seven o'clock and the public is cordially invited to be present and join in the singing of familiar Christmas hymns. There will also be special music of anthems and solos and the girls and boys of Caldwell, under the direction of Miss Nellie Hill will contribute a carol. Come and fill every seat in the auditorium and balcony and get real Christmas spirit in full.

U. S. FEEDS MILLION POLISH CHILDREN

Danzig, Dec. 18.—More than 350,000 tons of foodstuffs and raw cotton have been shipped to Poland via Danzing from the United States since last February. For a time these supplies were arriving at the rate of 5,000 tons daily. A shipment of 150 locomotives is expected soon.

The American Relief Administration for feeding European children directs its work in Poland from Danzig. John H. Lange of Seattle, Wash., and Captain C. A. Abele, naval attaché at Warsaw, are in charge. Mr. Lange told the Associated Press correspondent that in Poland alone the American Relief Administration was now feeding about 1,000,000 children.

"We expect," he said, "to do some relief work in Germany before long, especially here in Danzig. There is very little milk in this district for children, and meat, sugar and fats are also scarce.

"Danzig will soon be free city and, as Poland's port, is more Polish than the German. At the present time the German government bears the expense of importing most of the foreign foodstuffs and sells it at a price which the people can afford to pay. This arrangement will cease soon, and I think there will be urgent need then of help."

SMITH PARK WINS HIS "K" AT STATE

Mr. Smith Park, of Richmond, a senior in the College of Engineering of the State University at Lexington, was awarded the manager's "K" at the close of the football season. Mr. Park has been active in many student organizations and is now one of the out-standing members of the student body. He is a brother of James Park, who is coaching at Transylvania and is well known because of his excellent record in base ball and other activities of the University of Kentucky.

The significance of being allowed to wear the "K" shows that Mr. Park has been a capable manager. All of the team that have shown good work this season are also entitled to wear the "K". The awarding of sweaters with the "K" has been an honorary custom of the University for years.

SENATE ACTING ON RAILROAD BILL

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Dec. 18.—Resuming consideration of the railroad bill today, the senate took up the most controverted section, that dealing with labor, including the anti-strike provision. Under unanimous consent agreement a vote will be had first on the motion of Senator Stanley, of Kentucky, to strike out the entire labor section. If that is defeated, the McCormick and Jones substitutes will be considered.

Senator Underwood, the first speaker, opposed the Stanley motion, declaring in substance that congress must provide tribunals for settling disputes so there will be no interference with railway service.

SHEPHERDSVILLE BANK ROBBED

Shepherdsville, Ky., Dec. 18.—The safety deposit vault of the Bank of Shepherdsville was looted during the night by thieves, who demolished the combination to the vault door, got away with $6,000 in stamps, several hundred dollars in war savings stamps belonging to the postmaster and about $1,000 in liberty bonds, the property of other depositors.

BURG LARS VISIT R. K. MOBERLY'S STORE

Burglars made their appearance at Moberly the other night and ransacked the store of Mr. R. K. Moberly, well known merchant. Practically no clue was left to the identity of the midnight visitors. Entrance seemed to have been effected through a rear window. Mr. Moberly estimates that goods worth about $25 were stolen and the thief also secured $3 or $4 in cash.

KANSAS PLANS ANTI-STRIKE LAW

(By Associated Press)
Topeka, Kan., Dec. 17.—Preparatory to the meeting of the Kansas legislature in special session on January 5, members of that body have under consideration numerous plans for a state law which will meet the requirements of the present industrial situation, brought to an acute head by the coal strike. Gov. Henry J. Allen in his proclamation calling the special session, has asked the legislature to formulate some method whereby disputes between employees and employers in essential industries may be settled without a complete curtailment of production, caused by strike of lockout, pending a settlement of the dispute. Arbitration of these disputes. Governor Allen declared, has proven in adequate. Some other plan, in the operation of which neither party of the dispute shall have a final vote, must be devised, he stated.

MT. STERLING COURT DAY

At Mt. Sterling court day there were about 2,500 head of cattle, but many left unsold. The sales were not as brisk as usual though the prices were about the same as court day in November. Good steers sold from 7 to 9 cents; a few extra ones at 10 cents and some fat baby heaves weighing 1,000 pounds at 12 cents. They were home raised, corn fed steers, black faces and Herefords. On all classes flesh was at a premium. Fat cows sold at 9 cents, fat heifers 8 cents, stock cows from 7 to 8 cents, heifers 6 to 8 cents, common cows, 6 to 7 cents, canners, 4 to 5 cents.

OLD CHURCH TO BE MADE A SCHOOLHOUSE

Kavanaugh May Be Made Experimental School For Eastern Normal Work

Plans are under consideration by which it is hoped to make the Kavanaugh a training or experimental school for Eastern State Normal School, much on the same order as the Scaffold Cane school is a training school for Berea College. The County Board of Education at its recent meeting purchased the Baptist church at Kavanaugh and will convert it into a modern country school building. The sum of $1,000 was paid for the old church and deed was received from its trustees Messrs J. N. Culton, W. K. Jones and John Munsey. The church building is large enough to provide two commodious school rooms, which will probably be constructed. The present school, of which Miss Katherine Rankin, is the very efficient teacher, is cramped in its quarters. There are 82 children in the school district as shown by the last school census, but it is believed that the next census will show over 100 children in the district. The district contributed half of the purchase price of the church building which will be converted into the schoolhouse.

Miss Rankin closes her present term next Tuesday. An attractive entertainment has been arranged for the closing exercises, and all are invited to attend.

XMAS MONEY HERE FOR TEACHERS SATURDAY

The final meeting of the present school terms will be held by Madison county teachers at the court house Saturday. There will undoubtedly be a full attendance for Supt. Ben F. Edwards has their Christmas money for them in the shape of a check for about $6,100, which he received from the State Educational Department to pay the Madison teachers' salaries for November. An attractive program has been arranged for the meeting. President T. J. Coates, of Eastern Normal, and Dean E. C. McDougall will make an address, and Supt. J. Howard Payne, of the City Schools, will also speak. The Normal speaker will tell of plans for the work after Christmas. The local County Board of Education has made it a requirement that all teachers in the county schools shall have had Normal work, and many are now arranging to take a course here after their schools close.

Working Man Now Wears Best Tailored Clothes

(By Associated Press)
Cincinnati, O., Dec. 18.—Men's styles in the future, as they emanate from the shops of the merchant tailors, may be dictated by the tastes of the plumber, the farmer, the milk wagon driver. They and their fellow workers have become patrons of merchant tailoring, and they think nothing of paying a high price for a suit, according to Chris E. Krieger, president of the Cincinnati Merchant Tailor Designers' Association.

"The past few years have brought a decided change in the patronage of the merchant tailor," he said, in announcing that the subject would be discussed at the national convention of the Merchant Tailor Designers' Association, to be held here February 3 to 6. "We still have the business man, but there is a new clientele. We have won the patronage of the skilled mechanic, and he is not particular how high priced are the suits he orders. He wants the best. To a lesser extent, we find the farmer developing, as a class, into a patron of merchant tailoring. He wants his Sunday suit well tailored; and his tastes run mostly to subdued colors."

Jeff Harris, former cook at the Governor's mansion, waived examination and was bound over under $600 bond on the charge of forging the name of Mrs. James D. Black to a check for $436, which was cashed at Frankfort November 26.

Presidential candidates are coming thick and fast. Senators Harding, of Ohio, Johnson, of Calif., Poinsett, of Washington, Gen. Wood, and Gov. Lowden, of Illinois, are all actively in the field for the republican nomination. Ambassador James W. Gerard, who represented the United States at Berlin before the war, surprised a great many when he filed his papers in South Dakota as a candidate for the Democratic nomination. Both McAdoo and Attorney General Mitchell Palmer are expected to get in, too. One of the two will probably be the nominee. Well posted political writers say the Old Guard is determined to name the Republican candidate and it already engaged in "setting in the work". The Old Guard isn't friendly to the candidacy of Gen. Wood. If we must have a general for president, why not Pershing, who has done things and would undoubtedly make a very attractive candidate?

"Woman Suffrage Not Almighty's Plan"

Covington, Ky., Dec. 18—Representative Harry J. Meyers, of Covington, has received letters from a number of women opposed to the suffrage cause, urging him to oppose the ratification of the Susan B. Anthony amendment. Meyers, who is on record as opposed to women suffrage, received the following letter from Mrs. Evelyn Baker Dodd, of Covington:

"We women who do not want the ballot can't understand what kind of an American man must he be who wants a woman to vote. Our God placed woman in the home and she should stay in her place. I have found that it is never a safe thing to alter the Almighty's plan."

"May Kentucky never attempt it! If this sinister amendment become a law in the land it will be the darkest day in America's history. The Southern women will be overwhelmed and the South will never be able to get a measure passed, so great will be the majority against them. Women in politics means the destruction of the home, the foundation of every country."

Christmas Slippers

The Christmas tree would seem incomplete if it bore no slippers. Above is a group of this year's offerings. At the top is a gay little pair of ribbon slippers for the young girl. In the center there are elderdown bedroom slippers for any member of the family, and just below a pair of satin booties for baby, lined with plush or elderdown and bordered with fur. At the bottom is a pair of handsome bedroom slippers made of ribbon that will delight any woman.

"I concur in all of the sentiments expressed by Mrs. Dodd and other women who believe as she does," said Representative Meyers.

And take a full purse, do;

LOOKS BETTER FOR M'COMBS

Local stockholders of the McCombs Oil Company are interested in a statement from J. C. McCombs of the McCombs Producing & Refining Company, who says that the present management of the company is working hard to bring the affairs of the concern into shape and place it on its former basis. He stated that work is progressing most satisfactorily on the Texas well, which is located favorably for a good produce. The company expects to have the vacuum pump now being installed on its Wolfe county property in the Campton district in working order in the next ten days. He figures this will bring the production of the 55 wells belonging to the company in that territory up around 50 per cent.

"The company", said President McCombs, "will not sell any more property in Kentucky. In fact, we are contemplating the purchase of some big production in this state very shortly. The officers of the company have recently been moved from Louisville to Winchester. A court order, issued Louisville requiring the books of the company to be held in that city for examination, expired last week."

The One Price House

SALES ON OTHER BREAKS WEDNESDAY

Lexington—Tobacco was off about $10 for the cheaper grades on the Lexington market, but good leaf continued high. A few crops sold for around 90c, but the majority brought only about 50c.

Maysville—Loose leaf tobacco sales here continue light, owing to weather conditions, which has somewhat lowered prices. Less than 100,000 pounds were sold at prices ranging from 6c to 9c. The general average was lower than any day of season, barely reaching 38c; per pound.

Mt. Sterling—The tobacco market was easy, with medium and red tobacco lower, and no change in low grades. Fine tobacco and good tobacco with color were as strong as any time during the season. Prices ran from 8c to 9c. A crop of 1,260 pounds, grown by Sudie and Minnie Conlee, two little girls, near Stanton, Powell county, brought an average of $68.04.

Lancaster—More than 300 wagon loads of tobacco line the streets of Lancaster and garages, stables and other buildings are being utilized for storing the weed as the local warehouse has all it can handle. The market was strong 78,200 pounds selling for an average of $51.25. Harris and Wood's crop of 2,785 pounds averaged $93. Several baskets of it bringing $1.

Carrollton—Good brights on the Carrollton market barely held up to yesterday's prices, some attributing this to the fact that the J. P. Taylor Company's buyer has been off the market since Monday at noon. Sales for the day are estimated at 100,000 pounds, prices ranging from 8c to 22c.

Paris—The highest average ever received for a complete crop of tobacco on the Paris market was made at the Paris house of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company, when the crop of Johnson & O'Neil, consisting of 3,185 pounds, sold for $3,021.04 an average of $97.05.

Shelbyville—The better grades of tobacco were stronger, the Farmers' house selling 264,170 pounds at the average for $41.39. Prices ranged from 10c to $1.

Elizabethtown—There were 125,000 pounds of tobacco sold on the floor here. The highest price, $1.05 a pound was the best ever paid in the county for tobacco.

Cynthiana—The Independent house sold 197,955 pounds of leaf today at an average of $55.26.

Madison, Ind.—Tobacco market were 142,200 pounds and the average $34.10.

Winchester—At the Planters warehouse 100,205 pounds of tobacco sold at 6c to 9c. Sales will be held Thursday, Friday and Monday.

Bold Burglar In Bell

Middlesboro, Ky., Dec. 18—After robbing four homes, a burglar was detected last night in the fifth house, but escaped by jumping from the second story window. The raid was follows: The Rev. J. M. Roddy, $14 and jewelry; Sam Fulkerson, pistol and rings; Mrs. McKay, $40; W. V. Tennent, $20 and jewelry. He escaped from the residence of A. H. Rennebaum.

F. J. Ross agreed not to enter into the livery business in competition with his former partner, J. R. Keen, when he sold out his share in their business at Burkesville, Cumberland county, but later be opened a garage and hired out machines to the public to ride between Burkesville and Glasgow. The Court of Appeals said that a change from horse-drawn to motor-driven vehicles was a mere evasion of the contract and did not relieve Ross from his obligation not to enter into competition.

Interesting Features Mark Chicago Opera Season

Chicago, Dec. 18—Two novelties and two revivals of time honored compositions were points of particular interest in the program of the fifth week of the Chicago opera season here.

On Friday night, Dec. 19th, "L'Heure Espagnole," (The Spanish Hour) a one act opera by Maurice Ravel, will give its American premiere with Yvonne Gall and Alfred Maguenat in the leading roles. The same night John Alden Carpenter's new ballet pantomime "The Birthday of the Infanta," with Adolph Bolm appearing as "Pedro, the Grotesque."

"Norma," grand opera of the old Italian school, will be revived Tuesday night by Mme. Rosa Raisa, and on Wednesday night Mme. Galli-Curci will appear in "La Sonnambula."

"L'Heure Espagnole" was produced with great success at the Opera Comique May 19, 1911, and at Covent Garden last summer. It is a musical comedy founded on the poem by Frank Nohain.

"The Birthday of the Infanta," has been based by Mr. Carpenter on Oscar Wilde's tale. The poetic story tells of a misshapen, fantastic Pedro, who dances happily at the birthday of the Infanta, amid plaudits only to discover his own terrible grotesqueness.

RESULTS COUNT

THERE'S NO GETTING AWAY FROM THAT FACT

If you are in the market for Farms or City Property, then the place to go is to "L. P. Evans—The Big Agency"—where you can always find the largest list from which to make your selection—where you can find Farms and City Property of almost any size and price to fit your taste and purse.

If you intend to sell your farm—then list it with "L. P. Evans—The Live Agency"—the agency that not only can but will place it before the largest number of prospective buyers. Here you are assured that every effort will be made to push the sale of the property listed—that years of experience enable us to put the property before the prospective buyers in the proper light. The fact that this agency does the largest real estate business in this section shows that it gives buyer and seller alike perfect satisfaction.

Over a Million Dollars

Worth of Farms and City Property was sold by this agency during the past year. From present indications, the demand for Farms and City Property will be even greater this coming year and the prices will undoubtedly go even higher. I do not believe there will be any chance of property getting cheaper—in fact, I firmly believe that the man who buys now will save hundreds of dollars by so doing. We have Farms listed at almost any price—from $100 to $1,000 an acre. I wish to call particular attention to the farm listed below for it is an exceptional buy. This property is for the man who wants something really big in a Farm—

Here's a Real Farm Bargain

I cannot too strongly recommend this farm for it is an exceptional buy and the man who secures it will be fortunate indeed. It is the best farm offered for sale that I know of at the present time. This farm contains 485 acres and is located just five miles from town. All with the exception of 20 acres is in grass—all 90 acres is in old sod. Every acre of it is

Ready For Tobacco Next Year

There need be no waiting to clear the land—it's ready to produce—NOW. Every fence on the place is in first class condition. On this property is an eight room dwelling with water works, two tenant houses and two tobacco barns capable of housing 20 acres of tobacco. Plenty of water—just the place for stock and no finer tobacco land to be found anywhere. Located but a few miles from town, it is an ideal country home. If you intend buying a farm in the near future, then I suggest that you come to my office and allow me to give you a more complete description. Or I will be glad to show this farm to anyone interested.

Tomorrow May Be Too Late

In Insurance—this is particularly true. The man who puts this matter off from day to day, saying "I'll do it tomorrow" little realizes the trouble he is courting—the big chances he is taking. If his home should burn tonight—if his life should be snuffed out at a moment's notice, someone will have to suffer—the man or his dependants. No man can honestly say he can afford to take these chances—no man who realizes the value of insurance will take them. It's sound business judgment to carry Insurance—and this—the largest insurance agency in this section of Kentucky—offers you expert advice and service. We represent Ten of the largest insurance companies in America, backed by millions of dollars in assets—and no matter what your insurance needs may be, we can take care of them to your perfect satisfaction. Below are mentioned a few of the many lines of insurance we offer. Come to the office or I'll come to your home, as you prefer but INSURE NOW—you owe it to yourself to do so.

TELLS FACTS ABOUT PAPER SITUATION

Lexington Leader Raises To 20c a Week and Shows What Papers Are Up Against

The Lexington Leader has raised its subscription price to 20 cents a week. In making announcement of such an increase, it states a few facts in connection with the paper situation, which the Daily Register feels its friends ought to know, for they affect this paper equally as hard as they do the Lexington paper and every other. Not that the Daily Register is seeking to parade its troubles or the fearful situation it faces, but just to let its friends know that now is the time it needs them and their loyal support, as never before. The Leader said in part:

For many years the subscription rate of the Daily and Sunday Leader, by carrier in Lexington, was fifteen cents a week. In those days white paper could be bought for $2.08 per hundred pounds, delivered and machine operators were paid $18.00 a week.

At the beginning of the war, when the cost of everything began to advance, the city carrier rate was raised to sixteen cents per week and the added cent went to the carrier.

Steadily, ever since the opening of hostilities in 1914, the price of newsprint paper has increased, until today it is selling on the market in carload lots at from $7.75 to $10.00 per hundred pounds.

Steadily, ever since the opening of hostilities in 1914, the price of newsprint paper has increased, until today it is selling on the market in carloads lots at from $7.75 to $10.00 per hundred pounds.

During the year 1920 The Lexington Leader will pay for its newsprint paper, on a contract for upwards of 800 tons, more than twice the price it paid for this paper when The Leader was delivered in Lexington at fifteen cents a week; when printers earned $18.00 a week, instead of $31.00 a week, as they do now, and when everything else that enters into the production of a newspaper was correspondingly less expensive.

Nothing that the housekeeper buys these days—and The Leader is now a household necessity in every home it visits—can be had delivered at anything like the prices that prevailed three years ago.

Milk, delivered, as a newspaper is delivered, daily at the doorstep, now costs from 18 to 20 cents a quart. Three or four years ago it could be bought delivered at 8 and 10 cents. And so with everything else.

The Chicago Tribune said this last week about the paper situation: The newsprint paper supply is rapidly approaching a stage which will be fatal to many newspapers. The present normal demand is perhaps 25 per cent greater than the supply, and prices are on a famine basis and going higher. At present rates of advertising it is impossible for most newspapers to make money. If this situation were the results of manipulation or monopoly, it might be dealt with by the usual legal measures, though prosecution and legislation are disappointing in results.

In fact, the present situation is the result of shortsighted attempts in the past to restrict the price of paper, which has kept capital out of manufacture, so that the industry now is not able to meet the publishers' needs.

The crisis can be met only by voluntary self-denial—unless it be allowed to develop until the weaker publishers go under. The Tribune is in a fortunate situation because it manufactures its own paper. But it believes it would be a national misfortune if newspapers or other publications of merit were victimized by this abnormal condition, perhaps even to the extent of being forced out of existence.

The Tribune believes, therefore, that the stronger publications should forego their advantage to a reasonable extent and enter into an agreement to curtail the consumption of newsprint paper.

A PECULIAR CASE

W. T. Moore, in Boyle lost a valuable gelding last week. The animal, in wallowing in the lot at Mr. Moore's home there, is supposed to have picked up a rusty nail. At least Mr. Moore found one; the point of which had penetrated the horse's neck to a depth of one-half inch. Lockjaw quickly developed, and the horse died.

Bill's In the Jug Again

(By Associated Press)
Rawlins, Wyo., Dec. 18—Bill Carlisle, train robber and bandit, was placed behind the walls of the state penitentiary here today. "Hello, Bill," said the warden. "Howdy, Cap," Carlisle replied. With that Carlisle became again nothing but a number to be known for the remainder of his life sentence, from which he had escaped.

Judge Parrish Buys Home

ADDS TWO FINE YOUNG DOGS TO HIS PACK

T. O. Parker, the well known farmer and fox hunter of the College Hill section, has just added two fine hounds to his pack. He bought from Henry Abney, of Union City, a 17-months-old dog for $35 and purchased another that looks like he will make good one from Sidney Tucker, of Winchester. This one cost him $25. Mr. Parker is a good judge of dogs and he likes his purchases exceptionally well. He and Tom Mastin, of Lexington, attended the fox hunt at West Union, O., several weeks ago, and Mr. Parker judged the meet. There were something like 150 dogs entered in the great sport of fox hunting and hound dog raised in that section of Ohio and Messrs. Parker and Mastin did some good missionary work among the boys while they were there.

WAR MOTHERS START DRIVE AFTER XMAS

The first year book of the Kentucky War Mothers is now being prepared, and will be an historical document unsurpassed in value as an account of the part taken by Kentuckians in the war. It will contain a list of all men and women of the State in the service, the capacity in which they served and their achievements. Photographs of Major General J. Franklin Bell, now dead, General George B. Duncan, Admiral, Hugh Rodman, Admiral Joseph Strauss, General Frank Winn and other Kentuckians who took a prominent part in the struggle will be included.

Mrs. Reuben Hutchcraft, of Paris, first Kentucky War Mother, is chairman of the year book committee, and is being enthusiastically supported by all members. Mrs. Foster now head of the organization in this state, bring valuable experience to the work having been historian of the Colonial Dames in the State of Washington besides doing much similar work for the D. A. R.

All members of the executive board attended the meeting, those present being Mrs. Abner Oldham, Mt. Sterling; Mrs. Reuben Hutchcraft, Paris; Mrs. J. F. Noland and Mrs. John Graham Johns, Winchester; Mrs. Herring, Georgetown; and Mrs. William Dowell Oldham, Lexington.

Paris, Dec. 18.—Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars is the amount Jack Dempsey wants to come to France to fight Carpentier. M. De Coin, manager of the Wonderland Sporting Club, of Paris, announces that he will pay the price. A cablegram from Jack Kearns Dempsey's manager, was received by M. De Coin asking for this amount. Kearns says he has received a bonafide offer of a $250,000 purse for a battle between Carpentier and Dempsey in America.

Kearns also asks for the option of a percentage. M. De Coin wired Kearns that he was ready to guarantee him a quarter of a million dollars, and wished to know what percentage was desired. If he received a satisfactory answer he will leave for Los Angeles immediately to close the contract.

JUDGE HARDIN DID FINE BELLIGERENTS

Some of the parties who were concerned in the little affray down in the Garrard circuit court the other day evidently didn't relish the publicity the Daily Register gave the affair. Anyway, an article appears in the Stanford Interior Journal of Tuesday, evidently written or suggested by one of the gentlemen concerned, which claims the Daily Register's report was erroneous in some particulars.

Now the Daily Register reporter who wrote the account of the affair was not present and did not see it, but was given a graphic description of the entire episode by one of the most prominent attorneys of the central Kentucky bar, who was present, was inside the bar at the Lancaster courthouse when the fist-cuff occurred, heard every word saw every move and gave the facts verbatim et literam as told by the Daily Register, to its reporter. And after the article was printed the attorney read it and told the said reporter that the story was substantially true in every detail.

As far as Judge Hardin overruling Attorney Puryear's objection to the character of Attorney Robinson's speech, the attorney who told the facts to the Daily Register said that he did not hear any such statement on the part of the Judge, nor did he hear the Judge reprimand or fine the participants in the little bout that day, but the attorney who told of the affair left early the next day and did not learn of the action taken later in the affair by the Judge.

The matter is, of course, of small consequence, and if any of the participants think that the Daily Register has done him an injustice, it is glad to print what he has to say about that matter in the Stanford paper, for it has a high regard for all concerned. So here's how he tells it:

In the first place after the affair had ended, Judge Hardin, who was presiding, not only severely reprimanded the attorneys in open court, but also inflicted on Judge Puryear a fine of $20 for being in contempt of court for having called Robinson a liar and fined Robinson $20 for being in contempt of court for striking Puryear. Robinson stated that Elbert Calico, the husband of the plaintiff, whose affections was alleged to have been alienated, was not present and had escaped all the humiliation of the trial, while the defendant, Mrs. Hill, had been compelled to face a curious and tittering audience and subjected to a long examination and cross-examination by attorneys and had been humiliated by the slurs of the attorneys on the other side. Judge Puryear took exceptions to this statement as a personal reflection on him, and made an objection to the court, which was overruled, but which Judge Puryear did not hear, and Robinson then continued his speech and said it was true that slurs had been cast against his clients, and Judge Puryear, standing up at the time within arms length of Robinson, stated, "It's a lie."

Whereupon, Robinson struck him and they clinched, and were separated in a few seconds without injury to either party, and the court thereafter reprimanded and fined both of them for contempt. We think in justice to the court and to the gentlemen involved a true statement of the facts should be made as above set forth. Both attorneys immediately overlooked the instance and dropped it, and apologized to the court, protesting that they meant no contempt of court, and renewed their friendship which had been of long standing.

SCENE IN "THE UNPARDONABLE SIN" SHOWN HERE TODAY

13 MILLION WHITE PEOPLE NOT SAVED

THIS IS ONE OF THE PRESSING STATE MISSION PROBLEMS IN THE SOUTHLAND.

THE SITUATION IS OUTLINED

Baptist 75 Million Campaign Has Apportioned $11,000,000 To Be Employed During the Next Five Years in Meeting Need.

Within the eighteen states comprising the territory of the Southern Baptist convention are 13,000,000 white people who are not only not identified with any church, but who do not claim to be Christians, according to information gathered by the Baptist 75 Million Campaign. To try and reach these people with the gospel is one of the aims of the campaign and to meet the problem the state mission organization in the various states will set themselves. To help these organizations in meeting that problem the sum of $11,000,000 has been apportioned from the total of $75,000,000 that is sought for all purposes, and during the next five years the state mission forces will seek to reach these millions of people right here at home with the gospel and enlist them in some phase of Christian work.

According to this same source of information, it is learned that there are 3,391 towns and villages in the South with a population of 200 or more in which there are no Baptist church organizations or no Baptist houses of worship. Inasmuch as these towns influence more or less the surrounding territory an effort will be made to reach them and the territory surrounding them during the five-year program of the Baptists, it is announced.

There are seventy-four county seats

Dainty Bonbon Boxes

There are many lovely bonbon boxes among gifts on display in the shops. Here are two of them—a round one covered with handsome cretonne which is glued to the foundation. The box is lined with a plain silk and the lid is edged with gold lace. It contains a small glass dish for holding the candies.

The square box is covered with silk and has a frill of finely platted chiffon about it. Over this there is a tiny vine of very narrow ribbon formed into leaves with little roses set between them. Gold lace finishes the sides and top of this box and with the ribbon vine, makes an ornament for the center of the top.

All myrrh comes either from Aden or Bombay.

A Norwegian has patented a sparkless radio device.

The flute is one of the oldest of wind instruments.

In the South without a single Baptist church or meeting house, it has been ascertained by the campaign headquarters. By reason of the large number of public officials residing there and the large number of people who go there from every section of the county to attend the sessions of the various courts, pay their taxes and the like it is regarded that the county seat towns are of especial importance and it is hoped that before the next five years have passed there will be an active Baptist church in every county-seat in the South.

Engaged in the work of state missions at present are 1524 missionaries, and while this may seem like a reasonable number, when the vast territory to be served is considered it has been found that fully 1,000 extra men and women are needed at once, for in addition to reaching the people who are not Christians there are many weak struggling churches which need assistance and whose members need development. In the several states of the Southern Baptist convention, for instance, there are 8,000 churches with a membership of many thousand which give but very little to any interest of the denomination and which are doing but very small things for the uplift of their communities.

In addition to these very weak churches, many of which have no pastor, there are in the various states a total of 19,688 churches which have preaching services only once a month, 3,000 churches which have services only once a month, and only about 2,200 full time churches. Part of the $11,000,000 apportioned for state missions will go to the strengthening of the weak churches and the bringing of them to full-time pastorates where possible.

Leaders in the campaign have sought to care for every interest of the denomination in the $75,000,000 that is asked in cash and five-year pledges during Victory Week, November 30-December 7, when the final drive will be made, but they recognize that the future development of the church depends in a great measure upon the development of the churches at home which is the peculiar task of state missions.

A Fad for Flowers

There is a fad for artificial flowers to be used instead of natural flowers for household decoration just now and every home-loving woman will be sure to enjoy a gift of this kind. Small garden roses, nasturtiums and chrysanthemums are great favorites and these particular flowers are cleverly made. They appear in baskets and vases as shown above and make a charming Christmas gift.

MAKING THE CHRISTMAS LIST

Reck Your Brain, Count 'Em Again, to See That No One's Missed.

"There, of course, is Aunt Maria, Aunt Lizzie and Aunt Jane; they're pretty old, but have to go down on the list again; and Uncle Joe and Uncle Pete and good old Uncle Lem; I wish I really could decide just what I should give them. And Cousin Nell and Cousin Kate and Cousin Belle and Sue, and Cousin May and Cousin Madge must be remembered, too. And Cousin Sam and Cousin Bill, and Cousin Jack and Ned—I'm sure if I and any more I would go off my head.

"There's Grandma Smith and Grandpa Smith, Grandma and Grandpa Jones—what shall I get for folks who have rheumatics in their bones? There's pa and ma and Brother Hal, and Sisters Maud and Grace; before I get through I think I'll be in the crazy place. Now what can I give all the girls who always give to me? Gladys, Hannah and Hortense and Lulu—let me see, and Clementine and Rose and Pearl and half a dozen more—my gracious, I must make a trip through every shop and store.

And there is Frieda, housemaid girl, and Mary Ann, the cook—ere I forget I'll put their names right down now in my book. And, Oh! what shall I give to Will? Tee hee, what shall it be? I feel sure that a diamond ring he will present to me. He says he only wants a kiss, and maybe that is so, but how to hang it on a tree there is no way I know. A nice silk four-hand might do, with stripes of green and white; I know he wouldn't be like pa and say it was a fright.

"And now I think I'll go to bed and put aside my list; tomorrow I am sure to think of some one I have missed. I will be bankrupt when I buy the things from ties to muff—yes, Christmas comes but once a year, and, gracious! that's enough."—Brooklyn Standard Union.

DECORATING FOR CHRISTMAS

Holly Wreaths Help to Make the Home Cheerful—How to Keep the Tree Bright and Green.

It is not Christmas without a big, gorgeous, glittering Christmas tree and plenty of greens hung wherever possible.

Of course you have your tree chosen and ready for its great purpose. When it's time to cut, invite your boy and girl friends to help, and make the bringing in of the Christmas tree a real ceremony. In England this is one of the big events for young and old.

The kind of tree to be used depends upon where you live. Red cedar, white pine, spruce, fir or hemlock are all good. To keep the tree bright and green set it in a deep bucket or low barrel, brace and fill the space between the tree and bucket or barrel with coal. Then pour in water until the receptacle is full.

Every home should be decorated at Christmas. Gather holly for wreaths, make ropes of laurel, and have several bowls filled with partridge berries. Mistletoe is beautiful and can be found as a growth on the top of sweetgums, live oaks and other deciduous trees in the territory south of New Jersey, southern Indiana and Missouri, and in Oregon and northern California. Other fine plants for decorating are Christmas fern and polypody. Black alder and flex or ink-berry can also be used. Every district has some special green that is adaptable for decorating. In gathering greens, never destroy the plants; cut and pick carefully and the growth will not be injured.

Steel is being substituted for wood in barrel making.

"SLOAN'S LINIMENT NEVER FAILS ME!"

Any man or woman who keeps it handy will tell you that same thing

THOROUGHBREDS PROVE STRONGER

GREAT WAR TAUGHT IMPORTANCE OF BREEDING OF HORSES.

RACING ENCOURAGED ABROAD

Nations Who Bore Brunt of Conflict Maintained the Sport as Much as Possible as Matter of Sound Policy in Its Relation to National Defense.

At no time in the course of the last five years, not even while the great war was at its height, did the Central Empires stop the racing of thoroughbred horses. The great tracks at Hamburg, Huda Post, Vienna and Berlin were the scenes of brilliant gatherings, even when the Grand Duke Nicholas was threatening East Prussia with invasion and Brusilov was on the edge of the plains of Hungary with his wild Cossack riders. At no time during the course of the great war were American and English trainers and jockeys, who had been caught by the declaration of war in Germany and Austria-Hungary and were unable to obtain passports, interned. They were permitted by governments their governments were seeking to destroy to pursue their accustomed callings unmolested and unrestrained.

To a certain extent racing was curtailed in Great Britain during the first two years of the great war. The use of the famous Epsom Downs course as a resting place for convalescing soldiers necessitated the running of the famous British Derby at Newmarket in 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917 and 1918. The preoccupation of the sportsmen of Great Britain in the business of war caused them, to a certain extent, to neglect the thoroughbred sales of 1915, 1916 and 1917, and Americans were enabled to slip in and buy up a lot of first-class stallions and mares with which to enrich the American thoroughbred industry.

France Alone Stops Racing.

Of the great nations participating in the great war, France alone felt the necessity of stopping horse racing. Threatened with utter destruction in a flood of Teutonic barbarism, France had to send to the fighting lines on the Marne, the Somme, the Aisne about Verdun, in the Vosges, every male Frenchman capable of bearing arms. Back of the fighting lines she had to mobilize the elderly men with the women and children for the imperative work of making munitions. Upon France alone fell the burden of resisting the German tide for upward of two years. Throughout the course of the war speed tests were held at the great French tracks, but not as public spectacles. But there was no letting down of the bars as regards the exportation from France of thoroughbred blood any time during the war. As a special consideration citizens of the United States, a country from which the French, from the very beginning of the war, were drawing enormous quantities of military material, who had thoroughbred studs in France, such men as John Sanford, of Amsterdam, Major August Belmont, Joseph E. Widener and Thomas P. Thorne, were permitted, when transportation was available, to ship to the United States a limited number of thoroughbred yearlings. No matured thoroughbred stallions or mares were allowed to leave the country, whether their owners were Frenchmen or outsiders.

With the signing of the armistice France and England resumed racing with characteristic enthusiasm. The attendance at the race tracks about Paris has been greater this season than in any for the period of half a dozen years preceding the outbreak of the great war. The crowds that witnessed the running of the Derby, the Oaks, the Ascot Gold Cup, the Leger, etc., in Great Britain, were greater by the thousands than the greatest of ante-bellum race track gatherings.

Sport Encouraged in Europe.

In France and Great Britain the patronage of horse racing, by the public, has the highest government encouragement now as the support of racing had in Germany and Austria-Hungary even through the dark months when human beings were finding it difficult to obtain nourishing food. France and England recognize today as Germany and Austria-Hungary have for many days the indispensability of thoroughbred blood to national defense and necessity of thoroughbred horse racing for the maintenance at its highest efficiency of thoroughbred blood.

For upward of seventy years previous to the beginning of the great war the military governments of continental Europe had been maintaining thoroughbred studs for the production of military horses, an earlier century of experimentation having demonstrated to the satisfaction of experts that it was the horse that boasted of the greatest proportion of thoroughbred blood that showed the highest efficiency in military service, whether as a trooper's mount, an artillery horse or a part of the transport service. The great war had not progressed two years before British and French specialists discovered that the life of the pure thoroughbred under the grueling conditions of war, independently of casualties, was twenty-five days, while that of the three-quarter bred was 20 to 22, of the half bred 17, of the trotter 14 and of the lesser breeds of horses of no particular breed 5 to 7.

English Learn Their Lesson.

Previous to the war of the nations the British government had left the production of horses for the army to private enterprise. The British had merely muddled along, as is their habit in most things. The difficulty the war office experienced in equipping with suitable horses the cavalry, transport and artillery services of the tremendous armies that were being assembled in France in 1916 and 1917, under Haig, convinced the rulers of the British Empire that the old haphazard scheme would not answer in future. The British Parliament was therefore constrained to accept the 1917 Major Hall Walker's generous offer of his entire thoroughbred stud as the nucleus of a great Imperial Military Horse Breeding establishment and to employ Lord Londsdale to manage and race the produce of that establishment on the tracks of Great Britain for purposes of elimination as the Imperial German government had employed various scions of German royalty to race the produce of the national studs of Graditz and Trecken for thirty-five or forty years before the outbreak of the great war.

The munificence of Major Walker's gift to his country will be understood when it is realized that his stud had been taxed on a valuation of upward of $5,000,000. Now that the war is over Parliament is beginning to appropriate vast sums annually for the maintenance of this Imperial horse breeding establishment after the manner such establishments had been maintained in France, Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy for half a century before the German invasion of Belgium. To promote the quick production of quantities of horses of thoroughbred, three-quarterbred and half bred types, this establishment is preparing to give direct support to the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding which was established some seven or eight years prior to 1914, and which supplied the Canadian and British forces with thousands of splendid half breeds, and to create subsidiary branches in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and India.—Advt.

Some Christmas Love Superstitions, Customs and Practices in the Old World

PURSES FOR POOR BRIDES

Money Collected and Presented in a Way So as Not to Offend Girls—Flowers Used in Proposals by Shy Young Natives of Alps.

Good St. Thomas, serve me right And send me my true love tonight, That I may gaze upon his face, Then him in my fond arms embrace.

After placing a piece of holly under her pillow, many a girl, in the north of England especially, repeats these lines to herself before retiring to rest on Christmas eve, according to a writer in London Tit-Bits.

Cupid plays an important part in many of the superstitions and customs that are still extant at this season.

Another queer custom in the north, although it is not now so prevalent as it was, is that of gathering maidens' purses. The money for these purses is collected some weeks before Christmas from the inhabitants of the mining towns, and they are given as marriage portions to the poorest among those girls who are soon to be married. On Christmas eve a full purse is quietly thrown in at the girl's window, so that her feelings shall not be wounded by an ostentatious distribution.

A Christmas practice among superstitions girls who wish to dream about their future lovers is that of abstaining from food or drink or speech during the whole of Christmas eve. Then, after all the family have retired, they make a cake of flour, salt and water, called a "dumb cake." This they eat just before retiring to bed, in the belief that their somewhat indigestible supper will cause them to dream of their future husbands.

In the Alps there exist several charming Yuletide customs of proposing marriage by the language of flowers. If a girl accepts a bouquet of edelweiss from a man during the period from Christmas day to New Year's eve the action denotes that she accepts him as her future husband.

Another Christmas custom in Switzerland is for the young man to place a flower pot containing a single rose, and a note on the window sill of the girl's room when she is absent from home. He then waits for a reply. If the maid accepts the flower before New Year's eve, then the young man boldly enters the house to "ask papa." If, on the other hand, the rose is not touched, he is allowed to withdraw, the proposal is rejected without a single word of love having been exchanged between the couple. This is a useful custom for bashful bachelors!

In Sardinia Christmas wooing is far more complicated. If a Sardinian father has a marriageable daughter, the would-be suitor applies to him for permission to speak to her by means of a species of telephone that has been in use for the purpose for centuries of Christmas.

It is a long string with a wooden knob at each end. The girl drops one knob out of her window and, the shutter being closed, places the other knob to her ear. Down below her would-be lover pours words of undying devotion into his knob!

On every New Year's day in Roumania a fair of marriageable girls is held. The girls are all drawn up in one line and the men, in another, with the parents of both behind them. If a young man likes the look of any particular girl he steps out of his line, goes up to her and enters into conversation. If he is favorably received by the girl, his parents and her parents compare notes as to the marriage settlement and similar practical matters.

Many quaint superstitions are associated with the festive season in various parts of Britain. In Hertfordshire the wearing of new shoes on Christmas day is considered to be very unlucky; while in other parts it is thought to be inviting ill luck to allow any new leather in the house during the whole of Christmas week. Some folk say that "a green Christmas makes a fat churchyard," but in Devonshire they say that a green Christmas makes a prosperous year.

Superstitious people assert that one should be careful about the choice of the holly for the decorations. Part should be smooth and part prickly. Then, providing both kinds are carried into the house at the same time, all will be well. But should the prickly variety be taken in first, then the husband will rule the household during the coming year; if the smooth is brought in first the wife will be "top dog."

A BELL

Had I the power To cast a bell that should from some grand tower, At the first Christmas hour, Outring, And fling A jubilant message wide, The forged metals should be thus allied: Not iron of pride, But soft humility, and rich-veined hope Cleft from a sunny slope; And there should be White charity, And alvery love, that knows not doubt nor fear, To make the peal more clear; And then to firmly fix the fine alloy, There should be joy. —Clinton Scollard.

The gooseberry has been cultivated for only 300 years.

CHRISTMAS REBORN

My heart's throbbing like it used to, old times they never come again.
At the thought of Christmas things, and the thought of little children climb out of little beds.
With the Christmas carols thrown in old on glory on their heads.
And a standin' like I've seen them all about the Christmas tree.
There is memories of what comes along the years to me.
But the memories are sweeter than the memories that come of the fur-off Christmas mornin's and the children with their drums.

Little children thymptoin' down the stairs in nightie white,
Even a "daddy" and a "mummy" and a "sister" of delight
When they see the tree a-standin' in the corner Christmas dawn, and a love has made them certain that all Santa Claus is gone.
For although they write to Santa, tellin' what they'd like to get,
they are always apt to expect that they will find him there, till yet.
When they're gettin' up so early, so they give a squeal to see that he's got his work all finished and has left the Christmas tree.

Children late years ain't been gettin' all they wish for,
For his work was biggers with by the hours of the year.
But the war is done and ended, and we've got to rise and go.
All the gifts for this here Christmas that we ever used to know,
but he doestn' showin' early and enough for years to go.
Get in line, back Santa Claus and get the Christmas tree, and be sure that there was no more in the world, an' grief and tears.
Get to do our shoppin' now, and brighten by the comin' year.
—Judd Mortimer Lewis.

CHRISTMAS ACTS AS TONIC

Happy and Enlivening Mental Spirit Has Good Effect on People, Doctors Medical Observers.

Care observers in the ranks of the medical profession have noted one very interesting fact concerning the Christmas season—that it generally has a good tonic effect upon their patients. An explanation of this the London Lancet says that since Christmas has come to be regarded as a time for good cheer, a universal feeling of contentment and happiness is engendered at this time of joyousness, routine is for a while relieved, a certain freshness is given to the daily round, diffidence of opinion are sunk, and a charitable spirit prevails. It is, by the way, hoping for too much that the season of good fellowship should leave some lasting effect upon the manners and methods of all.

It may not be easy to trace exactly why this sense of exhilaration and well-being comes with the advent of Christmas, for the psychological factors concerned are not simple. But the main point is that the mental state does everybody good, and the annual season is for an excellent, an invigorating as the best of the year. It is which gives tone and vigor to the struggle in life's race. There is no need nowadays, thanks to the good sense of the people and the counsel of their medical advisers, to moralize about the evils of a stupid indulgence in food, alcohol and tobacco on a festive occasion such as the present. Practically everybody realizes the great physiological advantages of being wise on a festive occasion and the advantages of being a fool.

Many more people than formerly feel better now and abuse begins, and they act sensibly accordingly, and so far from it being a crime to make the season festive by enjoying on a little extended, perhaps, the creature comforts of life, some decided good is done to both the mental and physical health of the individual.

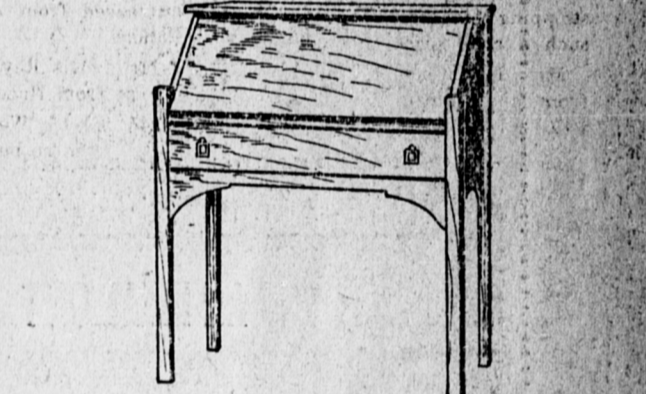

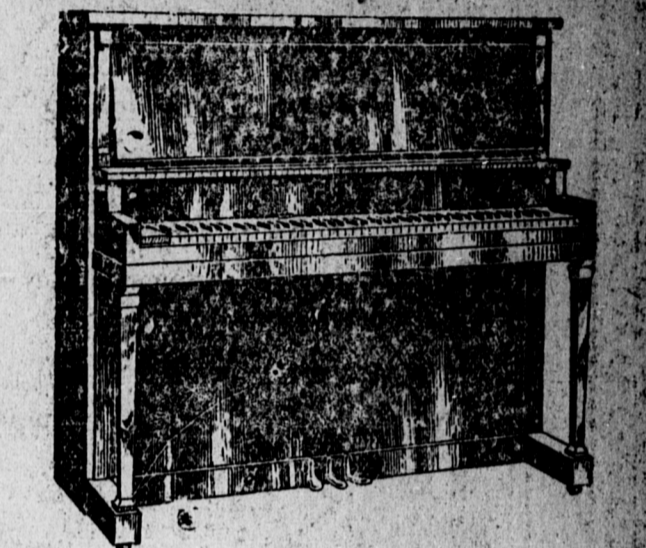

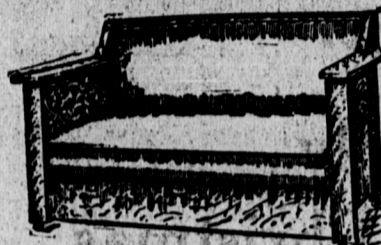

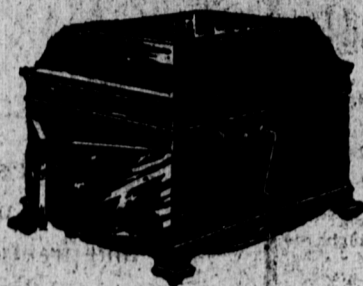

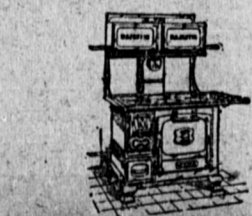

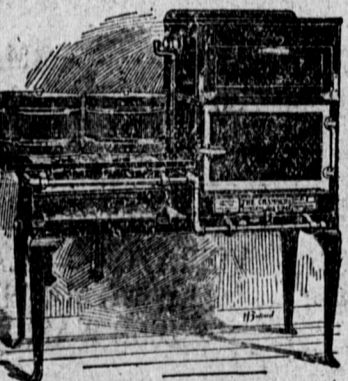

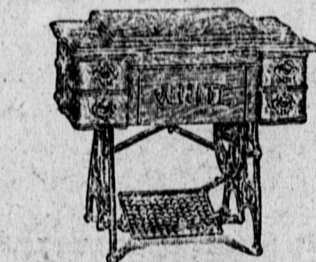

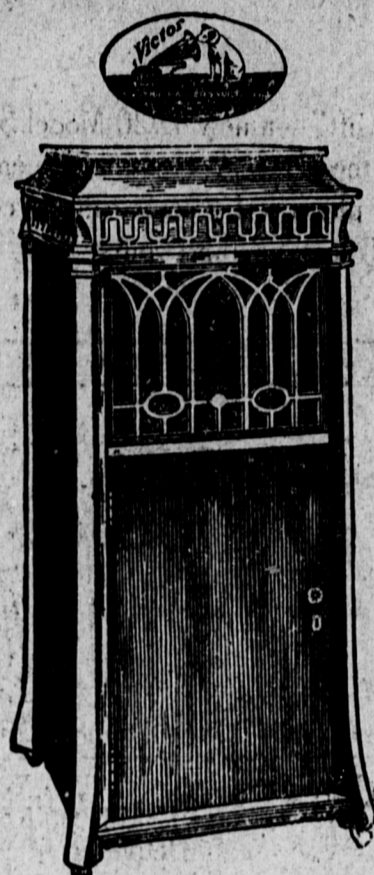

The festive season may, therefore, be welcomed which brings cheer to thousands, which induces the generous and charitable to brace the mental and physical functions of the community at large, giving it the opportunity of relinquishing its business and its worries for a time, to start again refreshed and ready for "the trivial round of the common task." The prescription "A Merry Christmas" is sound so long as the "signature" of good sense is observed.

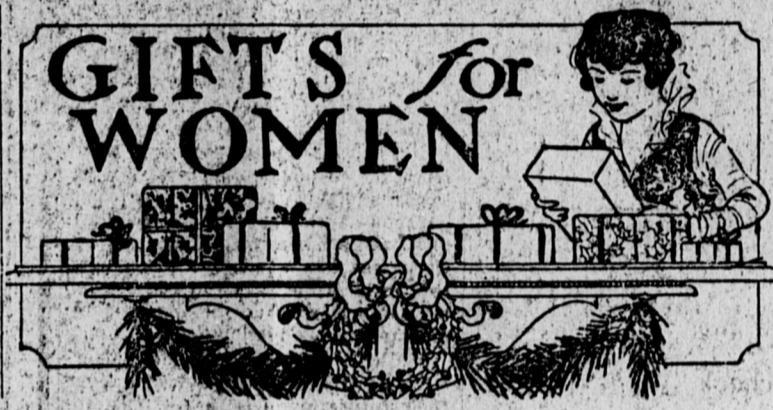

Miss Romantique—You men—before marriage you pay compliments, but after—
Mr. Wise—We pay the bills.

Christmas.
It is a blessed thing to believe in Christmas and all that it means. It is a blessed thing to be able to hear the song of the heavenly visitors. It has never sounded sweeter; never more necessary, never more full of hope and promise.

The Most Sensible Gift of All Is the Gift of Furniture

No one should be extravagant in their gifts this year. Gifts should not be just ornamental—giving pleasure to one only—but to the entire household. That's the Christmas spirit that should prevail in every American home this season of the year.

Our establishment is filled with Christmas Gifts suitable for Mother, Father, Sister and Brother. We invite you to shop early at our store, where you'll find a generous stock of practical gifts awaiting your selection.

MOORE'S AIR TIGHT HEATERS

This is one thing which proves the ideal gift the whole year round. It is a Heater which is universally popular all over the country—more than a million users of this famous stove at the present time. It has the qualities that count—it circulates the air like a furnace and warms the cold corners, burns the smoke, soot and gas in soft coal which other stoves allow to go up the chimney. That is the way it saves 38 per cent of your coal bill. Just think of that this winter when coal is scarce and selling at $9.00 a ton. Nothing you could give this Christmas would cause more universal happiness in the family.

AN IDEAL GIFT

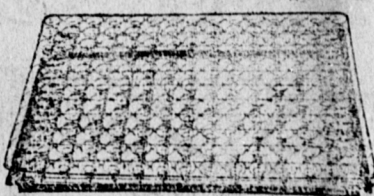

You can cook dinner with the same fire you cooked breakfast. You can have a hot supper these cold winter nights without firing your cooking stove. You can save a lot of money by getting an Ideal Fireless Cook Stove, combining economy, comfort and convenience and help a lot in the big fuel saving campaign.

We are going to help you by reducing the price during December on the $33 Cooker shown here to $29.50. When our new stock comes in the price will have to go to $37.50. Get your cooker now and let us show you how to save coal by using it every day in the year.

LIFETIME ALUMINUM

Has become the universal cooking ware. Our trade has increased wonderfully on this ware during the last year and we are stocked heavily with it for the Holiday trade. Not costly but valuable Xmas presents for wife, mother, sister, or daughter.

WHY YOU WILL PREFER THE STARR

Of things musical the primary consideration is tone. In the violin, in the piano, in the phonograph a pure, sweet, singing tone has long been sought for—a tone free from all harsh qualities, from metallicness, and from unevenness.

Therefore when the Starr Phonograph was made, its tone amplifying chambers, the "Singing Throat" and Sounding Board Horn were of time honored Silver Grain Spruce. And in the Starr the "difference in tone" was immediately apparent. There was an entire absence of all nasal, metallic, harsh qualities. Each and every tone was sweet, rich and clear and produced with exact fidelity to the original because the Starr had been designed in strict accordance to the old laws observed hundreds of years ago by the world's master music instrument builders. The tones of a voice thus produced are the tones of a voice, the tones of the violin, those of a violin, the tones of a band like that of a band, so clear and life-like is the reproduction thru the Starr's throat and horn of mellow, straight grained Silver Grain Spruce, the master "music wood of centuries."

We are taking orders every day for Christmas delivery. Early shopping this season is the rule—let us have your orders early, for Starr and Columbia gramophones and records.

A USEFUL GIFT

A good range will please wife, mother, sister or daughter, and will be a source of pleasure and profit for years to come. Get her a Monarch Malleable or a Moore's combination coal and gas range or you might get her a Good Will, or an Allen's Princess, or an Anchor. Years of experience with these ranges have encouraged us to sell them under our own guarantee, and the fact that we bought them last Spring before the big advances went on, enables us to sell them at a low price.

PYREX, THE NEW OVEN BAKING WARE

Does not chip or crack when used inside the oven. Inexpensive. A valuable present for wife, mother, sister or daughter. We have a Bridal Gift set which is very attractive. The word Pyrex on every piece if its genuine.

THERE'S A SONG IN THE AIR

There's a song in the air!
There's a star in the sky!
There's a mother's deep prayer,
And a baby's low cry!
And the star rains its fire
While the beautiful sing,
For the manger of Bethlehem
Cradles a king!

There's a tumult of joy
O'er the wonderful birth,
For the Virgin's sweet boy
Is the Lord of the earth.
Aye! the star rains its fire
While the beautiful sing,
For the manger of Bethlehem
Cradles a king!

In the light of that star
The ages are sped,
And that song from afar
Has swept o'er the world.
Every heart is aflame,
And the beautiful sing
In the homes of the nations
That Jesus is King!

We rejoice in the light,
And we echo the song,
That comes down through the night
From the heavenly throng.
Aye! we shout to the lovely
Evangel they bring.
And we greet in his cradle
Our Savior and King.
—Josiah G. Holland.

LORE OF THE YULE LOG

Should Be Lighted From Portion of Last Year's Which Should Be Preserved for Good Luck.

The Yule-log, a probable variant of the bonfire—so characteristic of sun festivals—has some interesting folklore of its own.

In medieval England, its duration coincided with the Christmas revels. As long as it burned, the tenant had a right to feed at the lord's expense. The log was often cut from an ash-tree—the sacred tree of our Saxon forefathers. There is a gypsy legend that our Lord was born in a field and brought up by an ash-tree.

The log should, properly, be lighted with a portion of last year's log, a piece of which is always supposed to be preserved for luck. At the same time that the Christmas fire was lit, the Christmas candle had to be lighted. (A portion of last year's taper has also to be kept.) It was unlucky to snuff the Christmas candle, which burned for 12 days—the period of festivity. At St. John's college, Oxford, can still be seen the ancient stone socket with the Agnus Dei stamp, in which the Christmas candle was placed on the high table.

On the Isle of Man, the folk formerly carried long tapers to church on Christmas eve.

AND BEFORE CHRISTMAS, TOO.

"Jeanette, you are the light of my life. You're my sun, my stars, my all, you're my—"

"Yes, George. I know all that; but you're broke."

The Bubble Burst.

Young Tom was spending Christmas in the country and had been invited to the beautiful home of a sweet young thing named Agnes.

"What a charming place!" he said enthusiastically, to Agnes' proud parents. "Does it go as far as those woods over there?"

"It does," remarked the somewhat unsympathetic father.

"Ah," said Tom, still cheerily, "and so that old stone wall over there, sir?"

"It does," came the gruff answer; "and it goes as far as the river on the south, and to the main road on the north."

"Beautiful!" put in Tom.

"Yes," went on the old man, "but it doesn't go with Agnes!"

Then Tom faded peacefully from view.

Stockings for Christmas Only.

The Christmas stocking as generally known is one taken from the bureau supply for daily wear. In certain parts of the country, however, the Christmas stocking is never in use except to be "hung from the chimney with care." The New England stocking of this kind is usually long in the leg and knitted from woolen yarn. There are stockings on Cape Cod which have been used by four generations of children. Once emptied of their treasure on Christmas morning they are rolled up and marked and laid away for the next year's festivities.

The Question of Importance.

Millionaire—Tell me, child, that young man who wants to marry you this Christmas, has he got any money?

Miss Innocence—Money, father? Why, he has just given me a cluster diamond ring studded with pearls.

Millionaire—Yes, I know. Has he any money left?

There's a heap of satisfaction in a brimming cup of good, old Rockwood coffee. Rockwood coffee isn't a new fad, but an old friend. D. B. McKimber & Co., Richmond. 316-6

CHRISTMAS BELLS

Hark! Hark! I hear a distant bell,
And now a chime—these softly ring,
What joyful tidings do they tell,
As back and forth they swing.

'Tis mid of night—who rings those bells,
Perhaps some doves there nestling,
And while each little bosom swells,
And warm, they touch with gentle wings
The tuneful metal, and it feels
So incubated it would swing
To life, and wake the world with peals,
Of gladness as for new-crowned King.

Those midnight bells, how sweet they chime;
The welkin vibrates with their sound;
To hearts attune they are sublime,
Nor spread they dread alarm around.

Lo! now I see, from East afar
A light shines through the steeples' frame.

'Tis brighter than the brightest star,
It glows the bells with golden flame,
There, too, I see some cherubs cling
Fast hold the ropes. How fair they be!
They swing the bells and sweetly sing
"This is the Christ's nativity."

Wake every heart, join in their song
Of praise to Christ, our new-born King;
To him, our sweetest strains belong,
And his, our richest offering.

When wakes the god of day, and shines
Athwart the heavens, what of gloe
Will wake us well? With box and pine
And flowers gay, yon house will be
Adorned, and while the anthem swells
With organs voice, all Christendom
Will vibrate as he comes, the bells
That Christ's nativity has come.

ANCIENT CHRISTMAS TOYS

Dolls That Delighted Children of Rome and Greece in Early Days Recently Excavated.

Rag dolls are as old as the hills and so are dolls with movable arms and legs, toy dogs, rocking horses and a host of other things that bring delight to the children on Christmas morning.

Recent excavations in the ruins of ancient Rome, Greece and Egypt have placed the British museum in possession of an interesting assortment of these relics of early Christian days, some of which may possibly have been given to the children of the followers of Christ at a time when the observation of Christmas day was an innovation.

In the nursery of a newly excavated house at Behnesa, Egypt, a fairly well preserved rag doll was found with arms and legs still intact and painted face. The doll is by no means a beauty and does not compare with the Christmas dolls of today, but nevertheless it must have brought joy to a little girl's heart nearly 2,000 years ago.

The jointed dolls of long ago were made to sit down, stand up and move their arms, but they didn't close their eyes or squeak "mamma." Among the toy dogs, horses and donkeys are some made of stone and baked clay and others carved out of wood.

A CONVENIENCE.

"So you think the Santa Claus myth is a good thing?"
"Yes, it's a great convenience to have some imaginary person to take the responsibility when the children are disappointed Christmas morning."

A Christmas "Suppose."

We would not change the children's Christmas. But suppose all the grown-up people were to say to one another: "This year, instead of my giving you a present and your giving me a present, let us club together and give our present to some poor child who will not have any Christmas. There are hundreds of them somewhere. Or, if we do not know of such a child, let us give our present to a hospital for children, a home for crippled children, for incurables, for the aged, the blind, the feeble-minded." This to be, of course, in addition to what we usually give to charities at this season. Why could we not try this as an experiment, and see what the result would be?—Christian Register.

Touched His Heart, Not Purse.

A very ragged individual invaded the office of a millionaire one Christmas eve and started describing his woes and sorrows in so graphic a manner that the millionaire was more affected than he had ever been before in his life.

At last, with tears in his eyes, he rang the bell for his servant, and when the latter arrived, said to him in a broken voice: "John, put this poor fellow out at once. He's breaking my heart."

Their Annual Resolve.

Probably the girls are saying the same thing this year that they have said every year in the past: "Well, I'm going to start making presents right away for next Christmas."
